

Un-putdownable! That's how I'd describe this action-packed book in one word.

Set during the wintertime in Amsterdam, there is nothing not to love about the Unadoptables! Tied by a common bond, this is the story of a brave little gang of five who encounter exciting adventures that keep you entertained every step of the way.

Hana Tooke has crafted the story brilliantly and has given the Unadoptables unique qualities and personalities. The book is well-paced to keep up with the Unadoptables' escapades while giving you an insight into each character's personalities and traits.

My favourite part of the story was getting to know each of the Unadoptables as the story progressed and watching their individual personalities change and evolve with each of the adventures that they undertook. By the end of the story I felt as though I had made a personal connection with each of them and I loved watching their friendship with one another grow.

I would recommend this book to young readers in the 11+ age group and anyone looking for a book with the perfect balance between an action-packed plotline and loveable characters, bound by an unbreakable friendship.
